THE FIFTH GRADERS

Natalie Cowans is a 5th Grader at Govans Elementary School. She has a little brother, Michael Cowans, Jr., Grandmother Karen Stokes-Kent and Grandfather Michael Kent. Natalie is an excellent student in math and reading. She can calculate math problems quickly and is able to explain her reasoning. Natalie is on the Safety Patrol at Govans Elementary. Her hobbies include drawing and playing with her brother. She has one dog named Bella. She is excited about attending college and becoming a real estate agent like her uncle one day.

Gloria Gorham is a 5th Grader at Hampstead Hill Academy. She enjoys playing video games and riding on her roller-skates and her scooter. Gloria also likes playing the violin and drawing. Her favorite subject is math, and she especially loves learning about fractions. Gloria's favorite book is Maximum Ride written by James Patterson. Gloria has one sister named Grace and one brother named Joshua. She is so excited to be a part of Are You Smarter Than a BCP Fifth Grader.

Julissa Hutchinson is a 5th Grader at City Springs Elementary/Middle School. She has one sister and two brothers. Julissa has participated in an award-winning debate team at City Springs for two years. In Julissa's spare time, she enjoys reading non-fiction and mystery novels. Additionally, Julissa has a love for cooking, playing soccer and basketball, and singing. She aspires to attend Baltimore Polytechnic Institute where she will study science. Julissa is honored to be a part of Are You Smarter Than a BCP 5th Grader.

Stephanie Leyva-Camilo is a 5th Grader at Wolfe Street Academy. Stephanie was born in New York. She has been a student at Wolfe Street Academy since kindergarten. Her favorite subject is math and she loves to play basketball. When Stephanie grows up, she wants to be a physical education teacher.

Melody Owens is a very creative 5th Grader at Frederick Elementary School who likes to sing and dance. She lives with her mother, father and brother, along with a pet dog and hermit crab. Melody enjoys reading and writing; her teacher says she excels in reading. Melody's parents have seen good changes in Melody as she has become more involved in school clubs and programs since Frederick Elementary has become a BCP charter school. Melody has been accepted into the Baltimore Leadership School for Young Women next year.

Cavo Thornton is a 5th Grader at City Springs Elementary/Middle School. He has two sisters. Cavo plays tennis and soccer and has participated in an award-winning debate team at City Springs. He has a passion for drawing and writing short stories. Outside of school, Cavo loves to play video games and has a sincere interest in animals. He aspires to attend Baltimore City College, where he will study mathematics and art. Cavo is ecstatic to be a part of Are You Smarter Than a BCP 5th Grader.

Carlene Williams is a 5th grader at Govans Elementary School. She has an older brother and sister, Daniel and Tierra Williams, and two Grandmothers, Virginia Williams and Caryn Davis. Carlene is an excellent student in math and reading. She is almost always the first student to complete her work with correct answers. Carlene enjoys cooking different meals, reading chapter books and dancing. She has one cat and two birds. She has ambitions of attending college and becoming a choreographer one day.

THE BALTIMORE "BIG SHOTS"

Darryl D. De Sousa, Baltimore City Police Commissioner, has served the Baltimore Police Department since 1988. He was appointed Deputy Police Commissioner in August 2015 after serving as the Chief of Patrol. He was appointed as a law enforcement fellow with the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) in August 2016 and Baltimore City Police Commissioner in February 2018. Over the course of his career, Commissioner De Sousa has held key executive-level positions in administration and patrol operations.

Tom Hall joined the WYPR staff as the Host of Choral Arts Classics in 2003. After 10 years as the Culture Editor and then host of Maryland Morning, in September, 2016, Tom became the host of Midday, the highly rated news and public policy program that features interviews with elected officials, community leaders, and thought provoking authors, artists, researchers, journalists, and scholars from around the world. In 2017, Tom Hall was named Music Director Emeritus of Baltimore Choral Arts.

Dr. Sonja Brookins Santelises serves as Chief Executive Officer for Baltimore City Public Schools. She has spent close to 30 years focused on building high-quality teaching and learning to help students excel, including her tenure as chief academic officer for Baltimore City Public Schools from 2010 to 2013. She returned to City Schools after serving for three years as vice president for K-12 policy and practice at The Education Trust, a Washington, D.C.-based nonprofit focused on closing the achievement gap.

Councilman Robert Stokes is a lifelong resident of East Baltimore and a graduate of Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School. His career in public service began shortly after attending Morgan State University. Councilman Stokes has served the community in a variety of ways ranging from campaign coordinator for former City Councilman Edwin Johnson, Mayor's Representative in the Schmoke Administration to serving on the Maryland Democratic State Central Committee.

Robert Heck (Master of Ceremonies): A native of New York City, Robert Heck has worked in the entertainment industry for more than 30 years. His career as an actor and writer includes work in network TV shows, feature films, theater, industrial films and trade shows, as well as commercials and interactive computer presentations. In addition, he has provided creative services to many Fortune 500 companies, government agencies and industry associations. In an eighteen year career as an on-air host (Bob the Vid Tech), Bob received ten Capital Region Emmy Awards and a national CINE Golden Eagle Award.
